

Please do not allow the no-call list rules to be modified to allow such businesses as banking (and affiliated businesses) to be able to call us up to 18 months after we cease to be customers. For our family, and my elderly parents, this has been a real help not to have to run to the phone only to find someone wanting to sell us something we didn't want anyway, etc.